HOW DO I FIND BiblioBoard?

In-Library and Home (Remote Access with a valid LAPL Library card)
BiblioBoard is available online at all LAPL locations and remotely from the eMedia web page or within the Research & Homework alphabetical online resources list and under the subject categories of General Information and Literature.
DESCRIPTION:

BiblioBoard features tens of thousands digital collections of eBooks, articles, images, photographs, maps, pamphlets, and documents as well as streaming audio and video content on a wide variety of topics from around the world. Curated collections, called anthologies, bundle the content on specific themes. An anthology is a collection of selected literary pieces or passages. Ebooks may be opened and read at the point of access or downloaded to be read later. All content is available on an unlimited multi-user basis with no checkouts or returns. You can access BiblioBoard content from the web or various mobile devices. Choose "Los Angeles Public Library" from the Library Credentials dropdown then enter your library card number and pin. Easy access to download the free apps is available on site. Launched March 2013, BiblioBoard works across most web and mobile platforms.
BiblioBoard will not be available on the public catalog computers.

HOW TO BEGIN:

The first screen displays subject anthologies in 3 main divisions: Featured, Categories, and Modules. Use the arrows on either side of a section to move forward or backward to open one.

You can also click on Main Browse to view collections or Visual Browse to get a fuller glimpse of the contents of eBooks.
