

FILE YOUR TAXES YOURSELF FOR FREE

If you have a simple tax return with earnings less than $58K, and do not have Internet access, visit any Los Angeles Public Library to use a library computer, and file your taxes, yourself for FREE. Your tax information will remain confidential.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

All you have to do is bring your documentation into a FREE tax preparation site and we'll get you started. You'll have access to free tax software that will build your confidence in preparing your own tax return.

WHAT DO I NEED TO GET STARTED?

- A FREE library card to use a library computer
- Basic computer skills
- An e-mail address
- Documentation: Picture ID, Social Security cards for you, your spouse and dependents, income information – W-2, 1099, prior year adjusted gross income, bank account and routing information

WHERE DO I GO?

Go to your local Los Angeles Public Library, or visit the library at www.lapl.org/MyFreeTaxes
