

LOS ANGELES PUBLIC LIBRARY REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS STRATEGIC PLAN CONSULTANT

The Los Angeles Public Library (LAPL) is seeking a qualified consultant to oversee the process and guide staff in the development of a comprehensive strategic five-year plan for the library. The plan will provide vision and direction to LAPL in the areas of community outreach, immigration assistance, social services, programming, and the initiatives fostered and developed by the library since the 2015-2020 strategic plan. Please review the Request for Proposals (RFP) to learn more about this opportunity, the bidding process and other requirements. To register visit Registration on Regional Alliance Marketplace for Procurement (RAMP), at www.RAMPLA.org
