5. City Librarian's Comments and Announcements:

City Librarian John F. Szabo reported on past and upcoming library events, remarking that the Central Library, Chinatown and Little Tokyo Branch Libraries had to close early due to the curfew declared for the downtown area. He said there was no notable damage to any of the libraries, except for graffiti at both branch libraries in the curfew area. He added that activities in the downtown area are changing hour by hour and staff are dealing with information that impacts Library operations and schedules.

Mr. Szabo highlighted the Library's ongoing commitment to the New Americans Initiative, which serves immigrant communities in Los Angeles and ensures the Library remains a welcoming and secure environment. He noted the availability of both printed and online "Know Your Rights" resources, ensuring broad access to crucial information.

6. City Librarian's Reports:
