5. CITY LIBRARIAN’S COMMENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

   City Librarian John F. Szabo reported the following:

   Fiscal Year 2020-21 Budget Update:  The Mayor’s Proposed Budget was sent back by City Council to the Budget and Finance Committee with 33 amending motions. The Budget still will become effective July 1. The Library’s budget will be submitted to the Board in June for approval.
Reopening Plans: The Library is working on a reopening plan with input from staff at all levels. Phases 0 and 1 include planning and preparation, preparing facilities, and working on the procedures to offer LAPL to GO curbside service at a limited number of branches. In Phase 2, the Library may offer limited public access and services, following distancing measures.

The Library is following the leadership of the Mayor and health officials, and is working on staff safety standards based on the national standards from research conducted by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) and guidelines from the Center for Disease Control (CDC) for handling library materials, reorganizing workspace, and staggering work schedules, and following the city’s protocols for staff returning to the workplace.

LAPL’s Services at Home: For the first time the Library has surpassed the one million mark for e-media circulation within a single month.

KTLA Featuring LAPL Resources: Gayle Anderson, reporter from KTLA News, is covering LAPL services to the community, including Career Online High School, Safer at Home Archive, e-media use and e-cards.

Career Online High School Enrollment Increases: The number of students enrolled in the Library’s Career Online High School (COHS) increased during the pandemic. In April 2020, 50 new students were enrolled. There are 353 active students. To date, 389 students have graduated.

Safer at Home Archive: The Los Angeles Public Library has launched the “Safer at Home Archive” to document this unprecedented era in history and create a time capsule of the COVID-19 pandemic in Los Angeles. The Library is asking Angelenos to upload digital images, artwork, poetry, journal entries and more to the Library’s website to be curated and cataloged.

Translation Services: More than 20 Librarians are assisting the Mayor's Communications Team with translations related to COVID-19 messaging in eight languages: Armenian, Chinese, Farsi, Japanese, Korean, Russian, Spanish and Vietnamese.

Virtual Career Day Series for Teens: The Library hosted a Virtual Career Day Series for teens to stay engaged and career focused. Multiple guest speakers, among them social workers, occupational therapists and physicians, participated in six career days with 224 young adults in virtual attendance.

LAPL Wins Honorable Mention in Brand Awards: A short film created by Media Librarian Keith Kesler from the Public Relations and Marketing Office received honorable mention at the 5th annual Brand Film Awards. The video, which tells the story of the LAPL art card and its creator Gajin Fujita, won over submissions by Anheuser-Busch and Easter Seals.

Libraries Serving as Cooling Centers: LAPL employees, custodial staff, and contract security staffed the following five branch libraries to serve as cooling centers: Baldwin Hills, Platt Branch, Sherman Oaks Branch, Sun Valley Branch, and Vernon. Supplies and personal protective equipment from the City’s Emergency Operations Center and web-based training was provided to staff. No library services were offered.

Street Fleet Delivers Books to Shelters: The Library’s three new Street Fleet vehicles are delivering donated books COVID-19 homeless shelters at recreation centers. The vehicles, which are wrapped with graphics promoting library services, were acquired to bring library resources into communities across the city.

Disaster Service Workers (DSW): Library staff continue to volunteer for DSW assignments. They started managing two trailer shelter sites at Rancho Cienega and Friendship Park as facility managers and client support workers. The Library is managing the day-to-day operations. This is a 24/7 operation with 12-hour shifts. To date, LAPL staff have filled 3,400 shifts; 365 Library employees have filled more shifts than any other department, staffing LAFD COVID-19 testing facilities, shelters, and various other roles.

Anna Avalos Named a 2020 Mover & Shaker by The Library Journal: Anna Avalos has been the Multilingual Collections Manager for three years; since then, Ms. Avalos has created a Spanish Language Translations Team that collaborates on translation of policies, flyers, forms, brochures, and website content. She also helped organize the LA Libros Festival, which was a huge success.
