

Rules of Conduct

Welcome to the Los Angeles Public Library. The Library's first priority is public service. Every day, thousands of people visit the Los Angeles Public Library to read, select materials, use electronic resources, attend programs and request information from staff.

The Board of Library Commissioners has established Rules of Conduct so that library users and staff have a clean, pleasant and safe environment. We need your cooperation to reach this goal.

The following are prohibited at The Los Angeles Public Library:

1. Engaging in any activity prohibited by law.

3. Use of loud, abusive, threatening or insulting language.
4. Sexual misconduct such as exposure or threatening touching.
5. Activities or behavior that may result in injury or harm to any library patron or staff member, including challenging another person to fight or engage in any fight. Weapons of any kind are prohibited on Library property.
6. Patrons with hygiene conditions, including, but not limited to, clothing odor, body odor and lice, that interfere with the use and enjoyment of the library by other library patrons or with the functioning of library staff.
7. Activities or behavior that may result in damage to library property, including making any attempts to damage computer equipment or alter software configurations.

The Library is not responsible for children who are left unattended in or on the grounds of the library. Misconduct or misuse of library property on the part of juveniles will be reported to their parents.

The Library is not responsible for personal items that are lost, stolen or damaged in or on the grounds of the library.

Patrons shall wear garments covering the upper and lower torso of their bodies. Shoes must be worn at all times.

Enforcement:

The above enumerated rules are not intended to be a complete list of violations, but are intended for guidance only. Library staff and/or local law enforcement officers are authorized to expel persons who, advised of the regulations above, fail to comply with them. Such personnel also reserve the right to take appropriate action(s) against any other behavior which can reasonably be deemed to be offensive to library patrons or staff.

The Los Angeles Public Library reserves the right to restrict the use of its facilities and premises to persons who do not abide by the Library's Rules of Conduct. Failure to comply with the Library's established rules and policies could result in expulsion from the Library and revocation of Library privileges for a period of one day to one year, or in arrest and prosecution under California Penal Code Section 602.1(b).

Any person whose privileges have been denied or revoked for more than 30 days shall have a right to appeal to the City Librarian. Except for violations of Rule 2, enforcement will be held in abeyance pending the appeal. The appeal must be filed within seven (7) calendar days of the date that the patron is notified that the patron's privileges have been revoked. The decision of the City Librarian shall be final and conclusive.
