Los Angeles Public Library Closed in Observance of the Juneteenth Holiday

LOS ANGELES (June 17, 2022)—The Los Angeles Public Library will close its libraries on Sunday, June 19 and Monday, June 20, in observance of the Juneteenth Holiday, in accordance with the proclamation signed by Mayor Eric Garcetti and adoption by the Los Angeles City Council. At the library, Juneteenth will be recognized this year as a city holiday on June 19. Because June 19 falls on a Sunday, library facilities will be closed on Sunday (actual holiday) and Monday (City-observed holiday).
